

Are Gift Cards BS Better Than Cash?

All the craze immediately. Well, a minimum in India! Within the US, way back in 2006, it had been the second hottest thing to supply someone. With more and more companies choosing free gift card options, there seems to be no more good selection of presents. Lately, there are even websites from where you'll earn free gift cards online. You'll also buy gift cards online from various e-commerce websites like Amazon.

And gone are the times once you would like to supply cash as gifts to people (only your relatives do this now which we all know what proportion you want). While cash is nice, gift cards are better because gifts are mostly ordered online nowadays. And most of the people don't buy those orders using cash (especially, if there are some lucrative offers for paying online). Plus, with gift cards, you give that close one among yours the selection to shop for a present for themselves from their favorite brand.
